

Second Regional Technical Meeting on Coastal Fisheries

Noumea, New Caledonia, 12 to 15 November 2018

DRAFT Provisional Agenda (9 November 2018)

Working with people in support of sustainable coastal fisheries and aquaculture

DAY 1 – Monday 12 November: Data collection and use activities

Session 1 – Opening, introduction and country presentations

08:00–08:15	Official opening, opening prayer and welcome
08:15–08:25	Purpose of meeting	Chair
	Approval of agenda and meeting procedures
08:25–08:40	The big picture (governance approach for coastal fisheries)	IP 1: Amos
08:40–08:55	Coastal fisheries report card and indicators	IP 2: Donato-Hunt
08:55–09:10	Discussion and input from countries
09:10–09:30	Presentations by countries on coastal fisheries management – 5 minutes each with 4 slides in total covering 2 main coastal fisheries priorities, 1-2 current coastal fisheries activities and 2-3 main issues or challenges in coastal fisheries management.	Country delegates
09:30–10:00	Tea break
10:00–11:50	Presentations by countries continued	Country delegates
11:50–12:00	Discussion	Participants
12:00–13:00	Lunch break

Session 2 – Update on RTMCF-1 Action plan

13:00–13:30	Civil Society Organisation presentation	LMMA
13:30–13:45	Discussion	Participants
13:45–14:00	Progress on addressing the RTMCF-1 Action Plan	IP 3: Magron
14:00–14:15	Data governance approaches – update	Sharp
14:15–14:30	Discussion and input from countries	Participants
14:30–15:00	Tea break
15:00–16:00	Group work 5 working groups Questions to be provided for the session	Participants
16:00–17:00	Plenary presentation of group work proposals/results	Participants report back
17:00	Close of session

DAY 2 – Tuesday 13 November: Social inclusion

Session 3 – Gender and human rights-based approaches

08:00–08:15	Contextualising gender and human rights in the fisheries policy framework	Tago-Elisara
08:15–09:20	Principles of gender and human rights (the PowerWalk and the Cookies Exercise)	Seluka and Kunatuba
09:20–09:30	Discussion and inputs from countries	Participants
09:30–10:00	Tea break
10:00–10:40	Talk show on gender and human rights integration into fisheries from three PICTS	Fiji, Samoa and Solomon Islands (TBC)
10:40–11:30	Group work 5 working groups Two case studies to be provided for the session	Participants
11:30–12:00	Feedback from working groups and wrap up	Participants report back
12:00–13:00	Lunch break

Session 4 – Saving lives: safety at sea
13:00–13:20	Update on SPC activities in small-boat sea safety	IP 4: Blanc
13:20–13:40	Country presentation on sea safety	Tuvalu
13:40–14:00	Global and regional activities on sea safety	FAO
14:00–14:30	Discussion and input from countries	Participants
14:30–15:00	Tea break
15:00–16:20	Group work 5 working groups Questions to be provided for the session	Participants
16:20–17:00	Plenary presentation of group work proposals/results	Participants report back
17:00	Close of session

DAY 3 – Wednesday 14 November: Management approaches

Session 5 – Managing sea cucumber fisheries
08:00–08:20	Status of sea cucumber fisheries in the Pacific	IP 5: Bertram
08:20–08:40	Lessons learned from management approaches for sea cucumber fisheries in the Pacific	Govan
08:40–09:00	Governance: compliance and enforcement	Bertram/Govan
09:00–09:30	Discussion and input from countries	Participants
09:30–10:00	Tea break
10:00–10:20	Country perspective on BDM management	New Caledonia
10:20–11:20	Group work 5 working groups Questions to be provided for the session	Participants
11:20–12:00	Plenary presentation of group work proposals/results	Participants report back
12:00–13:00	Lunch break
Session 6 – Other issues and priorities for next RTMCF meeting
13:00–13:15	Status of aquatic biosecurity in the Pacific	IP 6: Garcia-Gomez
13:15–13:30	Country presentation on MoU between RMI and Kiribati for the exchange of farmed aquatic species	RMI/Kiribati
13:30–13:45	Discussion and input from countries	Participants
13:45–14:30	Plenary discussion and input on future RTMCF format, issues and priorities	Participants
14:30–15:00	Tea break
15:00–15:30	[cont.] Plenary discussion and input on future RTMCF format, issues and priorities	Participants
15:30–16:00	Free time while outcomes document finalised
16:00–17:00	Clearing outcomes document for the meeting	All
17:00	Close of session and RTMCF-2
18:30–20:00	Sashimi and kava in the Social Club area

DAY 4 – Thursday 15 November: Inception workshop for coastal component (KRA 3) of the EU and Sida funded PEUMP Programme

Separate agenda provided – session for ACP countries with territories and other participants welcome to attend as observers

08:00–15:30	Inception workshop with tea and lunch break
16:00–18:00	Programme Coordination Group Meeting	Committee members
Launch of the PEUMP Programme with speeches
18:30–20:30	Cocktail reception to launch the PEUMP programme

List of Information papers:

Information Paper 1: A strong and coordinated approach to coastal fisheries management – the big picture

Information paper 2: Coastal Fishery Report Card 2018

Information paper 3: Progress in the implementation of RTMCF1 Action Plan

Information paper 4: SPC initiatives in small-boat sea safety Past, current and future

Information paper 5: Current status of sea cucumber fisheries, management approaches and compliance

Information paper 6: Status of aquatic biosecurity in the Pacific Region

SPC's Second Regional Technical Meeting on Coastal Fisheries has been organised with funding assistance from:

